

The dancers' collective Fanclub is looking for a collaborator to assist with communication, PR and text work

We are:

A dancers' collective based in Copenhagen who initiate, produce and perform in our own productions. We invite artists we find fascinating into different collaborations, to create new projects that will influence and inspire the current dance and art scene. Check out our webpage and get to know us a bit better – www.fanclubdance.com

You are:

We are looking for someone who shares and could contribute to our vision of working collectively with innovative art projects and unconventional working methods. Because we love what we do, it's important that you also dig our work and are happy to engage with it.

We imagine that you are a person who knows the communication biz and/or have a great personal network and a creative mind. You enjoy discussions, can see the general picture and are good at finding new and unconventional solutions. If you in addition are great with text, both in English and Danish, we're in 7th heaven!

Your background isn't necessarily within dance or theatre, we believe in widening the horizon of the performing arts scene and our ambition is to get our work out to a more broad audience, who has an open mind for new art experiences.

Long working experience isn't the most important - we prioritize curiosity, commitment and great personal energy.

The project:

The focus in 2013/14 will be on our upcoming double bill DEATH - a collaboration with the artists/choreographers Kim Hiorthøy (NO) and Itamar Serussi Sahar (IL/NL). Premier the 23rd of April 2014 at Dansehallerne in Copenhagen, followed by a Nordic tour in May 2014.

The Deal:

Fanclub's wish is to build up a long-term collaboration with you, to create continuity and workflow, but as we are still a freelancing group the employment will be project based. For this upcoming season it will be approximately 1-2 months engagement spread out over a longer period of time.

Contact us:

If you feel like you might be the person we are looking for, please send us your CV + a short text with your thoughts on why you are interested in working with Fanclub, to fanclub.dance@gmail.com. Deadline the 30th of September.

Looking forward to hear from you!

♥ Fanclub, through Projektcentret at Dansehallerne

DEATH is a co-production with Dansstationen in Malmö and is supported by the Danish Arts Council, The Nordic Culture Fond and Nationalbankens Jubilæumsfond.
